

Please defer any decision about media consolidation. Diversity is not appropriately served as it is--let alone with fewer companies owning more stations, such as Clear Channel. This should never have been allowed. The public interest and our ownership of the airwaves is compromised by this action.